

Sarah Combellick, MPH, Program Manager, Evaluation of Abortion Restrictions.

Sarah Combellick is the Program Manager for the Evaluation of Abortion Restrictions. She is passionate about reproductive health research that informs public policy and has extensive experience designing and implementing research studies. Prior to joining ANSIRH, she worked at the California Family Health Council and UCSF's Bixby Center for Global Reproductive Health and Institute for Health Policy Studies on projects related to abortion, teen pregnancy, access to family planning services, and adolescent health. She received her BA from the University of California, San Diego, and MPH from the University of California, Berkeley. Prior to graduate school, she worked as a Reproductive Health Specialist at Planned Parenthood Shasta-Pacific. 510-986-8927.