

Megan Burgoyne, Program Specialist. Megan Burgoyne is a Program Specialist at ANSIRH. A passionate advocate and active member of the reproductive health, rights, and justice community, Ms. Burgoyne thrives on working to ensure women have an equal place at life's table. Prior to joining ANSIRH, she was a Public Affairs Manager and Community Organizer for two Planned Parenthood affiliates—Planned Parenthood Southeast in Georgia and Planned Parenthood Northern New England in New Hampshire. Using her extensive knowledge about reproductive health and rights and her in-depth experience in community organizing, public policy, and volunteer program management, Ms. Burgoyne works to expand ANSIRH's reach in the larger community. In 2011, she was selected as a fellow for the Women's Policy Institute in Sacramento, CA. Ms. Burgoyne is a graduate of the University of California, San Diego with a degree in Communications as a Social Force with a focus on law. Phone: 510-986-8945.