

Siobhan Hayes, MPH, Award Analyst. Siobhan Hayes currently serves as a Post-Award Analyst in the Business Unit for the Bixby Center for Global Reproductive Health. Siobhan began her career at UCSF in 2000 as a program assistant working with Tracy Weitz and Felicia Stewart, and left in 2002 for graduate school. Since her return to UCSF in 2005, she has worked in the Business Unit in various capacities, including intranet database development, pre- and post-award support, and grant management. Ms. Hayes now supports ANSIRH with proposal development, award setup, grant reporting, and purchase order and subcontract execution. Siobhan received her MPH in Community Health Sciences in the Reproductive Health tract from UCLA in 2004. Outside of her work at UCSF, Ms. Hayes also works as a fair trade auditor and teaches capoeira to adults and children in Berkeley. 415-476-2634.