

Roula AbiSamra, MPH, Project Coordinator, Health Workforce Pilot Project. Roula AbiSamra is the Project Coordinator for ANSIRH's Health Workforce Pilot Project. Her experiences prior to joining ANSIRH have driven her desire to see reproductive health improved based on high-quality evidence. She has been involved in reproductive health work in multiple capacities, which included providing patient care and case management in several languages, coordinating data collection and analysis for clinical and social-science research, and assisting in the development of the graduate Seminar on the Global Elimination of Maternal Mortality from Abortion at Emory University in Atlanta. Ms. AbiSamra received her BA from Emory University and an MPH from Emory University's Rollins School of Public Health. Phone: 510-986-8930.